ST. THERESE OF LISIEUX

CATHOLIC CHURCH

28th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said in reply, “Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?” Then he said to him, “Stand up and go; your faith has saved you.” - Lk 17:17-19

OUR PARISH MISSION

We are a welcoming Christian family committed to Catholic values, responding to the call of Christ revealed in the diversity of human need. We practice a conscious, living, active faith in a community whose source of strength is the Eucharist.

Miraculous Prayer to the Little Flower

O Little flower of Jesus, ever consoling troubled souls with heavenly graces, in our unfailing intercessions I place my confident trust. From the heart of our Divine Savior, petition the blessings of which I stand in greatest need.....Shower upon me your promised roses of virtue and grace, Dear St. Therese, so that swiftly advancing in sanctity and perfect love of neighbor, I may someday receive the crown of life eternal.

Amen

How to Pray the Rosary at Mass

Timothy Flanders Oct. 7, 2019 1Peter5

The Rosary is profitable because of what the Holy Mass is: the sacramental presentation of the life, death, and resurrection of our Lord. The holy Rosary is a meditation on these very mysteries. Thus, praying the Rosary at Mass is indeed one profitable way to assist at Holy Mass. We offer the following meditations for the Holy Rosary at Mass.

Before Mass — The Creed, Our Father, and Triple Hail Mary: Place yourself in the presence of God Incarnate in the Blessed Sacrament. Make a firm act of Faith in the Real Presence of Christ; hope in its power to cleanse venial sins and increase sanctifying grace; charity toward Jesus in His divine Sacrament. Offer yourself to give greater glory to God.

The Introit — The Annunciation: As the procession enters the church, remember how the Angel came to Mary (Lk. 1:28) and announced the Incarnation of Jesus, and how the priest as alter Christus enters and approaches the altar. Our Lord came to Earth to offer the one and only Mass at Calvary, and the priest comes to the altar to make present this very same Mass. Our Lady says, “Fiat” — “let it be done to me” (Lk. 1:38). Offer this decade to adore Jesus in His Incarnation.

The Kyrie — The Visitation: At the Kyrie, remember the Scripture, “Who am I, that the Mother of my Lord should come to me?” (Lk. 1:43) and meditate on the Visitation. Our Lady and St. Elizabeth cry out to God in hope and humility, while the Kyrie seeks mercy from the Holy Trinity. “He has mercy on them that fear him, in every generation” (Lk. 1:50).

The Gloria — The Birth of Christ: At the Gloria, remember the Scripture Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to men of good will (Lk. 2:14) and meditate on the Birth of Christ. These words were spoken by the angel host to the shepherds, who rushed to the newborn King to say we praise, bless and adore Thee. Raise your mind with exultant praise to Almighty God for the birth of His Son among men. Offer this decade to adore Jesus Christ in His Nativity.

The Epistle — The Presentation: When the Epistle is read, remember the Scripture, “A light of revelation to the Gentiles” (Lk. 2:32) and meditate on the Presentation. Just as Anna and Simeon testified to Christ when he was presented at the temple, so too you must testify before men about Christ and obey His Law, as Mary and Joseph did at the temple.

The Gospel — The Finding in the Temple: When the Gospel is proclaimed, remember the Scripture, “And all that heard him were astonished at his wisdom” (Lk. 2:47), and meditate on the Finding in the Temple. Consider the life and preaching of our Lord, how His charity burned for the salvation of men. Consider the joy of Our Lady and St. Joseph in finding Our Lord in the temple. Offer this decade to adore Jesus Christ in the Finding in the Temple.

The Offertory — The Agony in the Garden: At the Offertory, remember the Scripture, “And being in an agony, he prayed more fervently” (Lk. 22:43) and meditate on the Agony. The priest offers the Host and the Chalice, as our Lord offers His Body and Blood for the salvation of men. When the priest pours the wine and water, remember the Scripture, “His sweat became as drops of blood” (Lk. 22:44). When the priest says, “Pray, brethren,” think of the words of our Lord: Rise: let us go. Behold he is at hand that will betray me (Mt. 26:46). Offer this decade to adore Jesus in His agony.

The Preface and Sanctus — The Scourging: When the priest says, “The Lord be with you,” remember the Scripture, “Then all the disciples left him and fled” (Mt. 26:56) and meditate on the Scourging. Is there no one left to follow our Lord’s Passion but the angels and our Lady? His hands are bound, yet he says, “Lift up your hearts.” Our Lord is cruelly scourged, yet he says, “Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.” Offer this decade to adore Jesus Christ in His scourging.

The Consecration — The Crown of Thorns: When the priest spreads his hands over the altar, remember the Scripture, “And plating a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head” (Mt. 27:29) and meditate on the Crown of Thorns. The soldiers mock His majesty, while Our Lady and the angels adore it. As the priest genuflects, consider the homage due to the King of Kings, while all the world ridicules Him. Pilate shows Him crowned with thorns and says, “Behold the Man!” Look upon Him at the elevation of the Host, “My Lord and my God.” The double consecration represents the death of our Lord.

The Our Father and The Agnus Dei — The Carrying of the Cross: When the priest begins the Our Father, remember the Scripture, “And bearing his own cross, he went forth to the place which is called Calvary” (Jn. 19:17) and meditate on the Carrying of the Cross. Consider the words of the Our Father and the weight of the cross: “Thy will be done.” Our Lady and the women follow Him, while the whole world mocks, for whom He is consummating His Passion. Adore Him, the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Offer this decade to adore Jesus in the carrying of the cross.

Holy Communion — The Crucifixion of Christ: When the priest says “Behold, the Lamb of God,” consider Jesus Christ raised up on the cross. Remember the Scripture, “One of the Soldiers pierced his side: and immediately there came out blood and water” (19:34), and consider this truth: within the Sacred Host is the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of the Son of God. Offer this decade to adore Jesus Christ in His crucifixion.

Thanksgiving after Holy Communion — The Resurrection of our Lord: After Communion, remember the Scripture, “My Lord and my God” (Jn. 20:28). These words were confessed by Thomas to the resurrected Lord, and by you at the Elevation of the Host, which you have now received. Offer this decade to adore Jesus Christ in His resurrection.

Final Blessing — The Ascension of Our Lord: At the final blessing, remember the Scripture, “And lifting up his hands, he blessed them” (Lk. 24:50). As the procession leaves the church, consider Jesus leaving the earth and ascending to His throne on high. Just as He must reign as King on high, so He must reign over your soul through His Body and Blood.

After Mass — The Coming of the Holy Spirit, The Assumption, and the Coronation: Beseech the Holy Spirit to preserve the fruits of this Sacrament in you. In the Assumption, beg Him to give you perseverance in grace and a holy death. In the Coronation, beg Him to grant you everlasting life and commend yourself to the Blessed Virgin Mary.
