PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

OUR PARISH MISSION

*We are a welcoming Christian family
committed to Catholic values, responding to the call of Christ
revealed in the diversity of human need. We practice a conscious,
living, active faith
in a community whose source of strength is the Eucharist.*

Miraculous Prayer to the Little Flower

*O Little flower of Jesus, ever consoling troubled souls with heavenly graces, in our unflinching interces-sions I place my confident trust.
From the heart of our Divine Savior, petition the blessings of which I stand in greatest need.....Shower upon me your promised roses of virtue and grace,
Dear St. Therese, so that swiftly advancing in sanctity and perfect love of neighbor, I may someday receive the crown of life eternal.
Amen*

March 28, 2021 Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

The Crucifixion of Our Lord

After the anguish and desolation of His agony in the Garden, after the betrayal of Judas, the arrest, the interrogations of Annas, Caiaphas, Herod and Pilate, after the triple denial of Peter, the bloody scourging and crowning with thorns—all the while being ridiculed, blasphemed and spat upon—after all this, Jesus, our meek and humble Lord and God, who is Love, took up His heavy Cross, carried it to Calvary and was crucified. On the Cross, Jesus, though united to the Father, was deprived of all divine consolation. In the depths of His pain, He cried out: “Eloi, Eloi, lamma sabachthani?” - “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” (Mk. 15:34). The crucifixion shows Christians not only the effect that our sins have on Our Lord, but also the depths of His infinite love and lengths that He will go to save us from our sins, that we may be with Him in eternity. After Our Lord’s death, the veil of the Temple was rent in two, the earth quaked, graves were opened, “and many bodies of the saints that had slept arose” (Mt. 27:51-52). Having seen these things, the centurion said, “Indeed this was the Son of God” (Mt. 27:54).

Prayer of Pope Leo XIII to St. Joseph to be said after the Rosary:

A Prayer for Our Times

“To you, O Blessed Joseph, we come in our trials, and having asked the help of your most holy spouse, we confidently ask your patronage also. Through that sacred bond of charity which united you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the fatherly love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you to look graciously upon the beloved inheritance which Jesus Christ purchased by his blood, and to aid us in our necessities with your power and strength.

“O most provident guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ. Most beloved father, dispel the evil of falsehood and sin. Our most mighty protector, graciously assist us from heaven in our struggle with the powers of darkness. And just as you once saved the Child Jesus from mortal danger, so now defend God’s Holy Church from the snares of her enemies and from all adversity.

“Shield each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your help, we may be able to live a virtuous life, to die a holy death, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.”

This Year’s Grammys: A Shameful Display of Pop Culture

Jonathan Van Maren (LifeSiteNews, 3/16/21)

March 16, 2021 (LifeSiteNews) — In keeping with my lifelong tradition of not watching the Grammys, I once again did not watch them this year. For this year’s Grammys, our cultural elites outdid themselves. Cardi B and Megan Thee Stallion staged what closely resembled a live sex performance replete with stripper poles, backup dancers wearing only thongs and lingerie, and much flailing about with very little clothing. At one point, they twerked in bed together.

This was aired on CBS, and these singers are popular among young women. Young men, unsurprisingly, greatly appreciate this in a chauvinist, ungentlemanly sort of way.

Back in the good old days, feminist heads would be exploding and the right sort of cancel culture would be kicking into gear. But we’re more enlightened now. (It bears mentioning that our superiors waltzed the red carpet maskless — those sorts of rules are for the little people.)

The National Center on Sexual Exploitation (NCOSE) released a statement condemning the performance: “In a performance that could have been cut from a hardcore pornography film, CBS allowed a glamorization of stripping and prostitution to be broadcast in front of a national audience — a portion of which were children — for no other reason than for TV ratings,” stated senior vice president and executive director Dawn Hawkins. “Despite the ‘popularity’ of the song performed by Cardi B and Megan Thee Stallion, CBS should have never allowed this kind of explicit performance to happen at the Grammys.”

Further, Hawkins stated: “Prostitution and stripping are never empowering for women, as they set up systems that exploit and oppress women. CBS has contributed to furthering the sexual exploitation of women and contributed to the ‘normalization’ of porn culture.”

It goes without saying that most of those selling their bodies to men are desperately sad and close to broke, spending the money they’ve received for a pound of flesh for the drugs they need to survive the life they’re trapped in.
