OUR PARISH MISSION

We are a welcoming Christian family committed to Catholic values, responding to the call of Christ revealed in the diversity of human need. We practice a conscious, living, active faith in a community whose source of strength is the Eucharist.

Miraculous Prayer to the Little Flower

*O Little flower of Jesus, ever consoling troubled souls with heavenly graces, in our unflinching intercessions I place my confident trust. From the heart of our Divine Savior, petition the blessings of which I stand in greatest need.....Shower upon me your promised roses of virtue and grace, Dear St. Therese, so that swiftly advancing in sanctity and perfect love of neighbor, I may someday receive the crown of life eternal.
Amen*

Guide to the Catechism of the Catholic Church

Mary, Mother of the Church

Alfred McBride, O. Praem.

Article #31

“Mary is the mother of the members of the Church, for with love she has cooperated in the birth of the faithful in the Church who are members of the Head, Christ,” Catechism, 963.

A Catholic boy was telling a university professor about the greatness of our Blessed Mother. The professor made fun of the boy, “She’s no different than my mother.” The boy retorted, “There sure is a heck of a difference between their sons.” Yet, the mothers are different. Mary is no ordinary woman: She is the Mother of God and Mother of the Church. On the Cross, Jesus said to John, “Behold, your mother;” then He said to Mary, “Woman, behold, your son” (Jn 19:26-27). In calling her mother, Jesus referred to her biological parentage. In naming her woman, He spoke of her theological parentage of the Church.

Chief Model of Discipleship

As a dutiful son, Jesus made sure His mother was cared for after His death. As the founder of the Church, Jesus commissioned Mary to share in the Church’s birth as the chief model of discipleship. As a woman, her powerful contemplation would affect the growth of the Church. “All the blessed mother’s salutary influence streams from the overflow of Christ’s merits. His mediation is its support. It is wholly dependent on that mediation, draws all its strength from it” (Church, 60). After Jesus’ Ascension, Mary joined the community of believers in the Upper Room and prayed for the gift of the Holy Spirit. She was maternally present at the Incarnation of Jesus, and physically present at the birth of the Mystical Body of Christ at Pentecost.

The Assumption

Finally, the Immaculate Virgin completed the course of her life on earth and was raised, body and soul, to the glory of heaven. “In your childbearing you remain a virgin. In your dormition [Assumption] you have not left the world, O Mother of God. You have rejoined the source of life” (Byzantine Troparion, Feast of the Dormition, August 15th). From the first, the Church has honored Mary. This veneration of Mary is essentially different from the adoration given to the Trinity. Mary is a sign of hope about our eternal future. “She is the image of the Church’s attainment of glory in the age that is to come. Here on earth, until the day of the Lord comes, she is the resplendent sign of sure hope and a comfort to the People of God on their pilgrimage” (Church, 68).

Reflection

1. Is Mary just our model of faith discipleship?

By her complete acceptance of the will of the Father, of the redeeming work of His Son, and of every prompting of the Spirit, the Virgin Mary is the model of faith and love for the Church. But her relation to the Church and humanity goes much further. “This was her wholly unique cooperation in the savior’s work for the restoration of supernatural life in souls. She performed this with faith, obedience, hope, and burning love. This is why she has become our mother in the order of grace” (Church, 61; Catechism, 967-968).

2. What is the Church’s teaching about Mary’s Assumption?

The holy Virgin Mary, having accomplished the course of her earthly life, was assumed, body and soul into the glory of heaven. She participates already in the resurrection of her Son and anticipates the resurrection of the members of His Body (Catechism, 974).

3. Should we honor Mary and pray for her intercession?

We venerate Mary for her faith and obedience. We pray for her intercession as our heavenly Mother (Catechism, 971).

Prayer

Holy Mary, we approach you as our mother and Mother of the Church. Pray for us. Bring us close to Jesus.
