OUR PARISH MISSION

We are a welcoming Christian family committed to Catholic values, responding to the call of Christ revealed in the diversity of human need. We practice a conscious, living, active faith in a community whose source of strength is the Eucharist.

Miraculous Prayer to the Little Flower

*O Little flower of Jesus, ever consoling troubled souls with heavenly graces, in our unfailing intercessions I place my confident trust. From the heart of our Divine Savior, petition the blessings of which I stand in greatest need.....Shower upon me your promised roses of virtue and grace, Dear St. Therese, so that swiftly advancing in sanctity and perfect love of neighbor, I may someday receive the crown of life eternal.
Amen*

Scripture Tells the Holy Spirit's Story

Alfred McBride, O. Praem.

Article #25

"The prophetic texts about the sending of the Holy Spirit are sayings in which God speaks to the heart," Catechism, 715.

In the ancient Jewish liturgy, Pentecost was the feast of Mount Sinai. It celebrated the giving of the Ten Commandments to Moses and the sealing of God's covenant with His people. A mighty wind and fire swept the slopes of Sinai, evoking awe. The wind was the breath/Spirit of God as the source of life. The fire was God's glory, manifesting His presence to His people. The Upper Room of the Christian Pentecost is the new Sinai. Once again the mighty breath/Spirit of God and His fiery presence sweeps through the human community. Pentecost is a new Sinai in which the Holy Spirit is set as a seal on the universe, a declaration of God's irrevocable love for all people. Scripture reveals the work of the Holy Spirit in the entire work of creation and redemption.

The Holy Spirit in the Old Testament

The work of the Holy Spirit is present, though hidden in signs and images, in all the key moments of the Old Testament. We see the Holy Spirit's action in the call of Abraham and as the cloud and fire associated with the call of Moses and giving of the Law. He anoints judges and kings and speaks through the prophets. After the exile, the Holy Spirit prompts the expectation of the Messiah. His gifts will dwell in the Messiah. The Holy Spirit will enable Him to be the historic fulfillment of the redemptive Suffering Servant (cf. Is 53).

The Holy Spirit in the New Testament

In the New Testament, the Holy Spirit's work becomes visible, overshadowing Mary at the Annunciation, giving force and energy to the ministry of John the Baptist, and powerfully linked to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. The Holy Spirit creates a community of all the devout poor who come to Christ: the shepherds, Simeon and Anna, the Cana couple, and the first disciples. When His hour had come to be glorified, Jesus promised the gift of the Holy Spirit and explained that the Holy Spirit will dwell in us, make clear the full meaning of His teaching, and lead us into all truth. As for our sinfulness, the Holy Spirit will convict us of our evil and convert our hearts to Christ and the gift of grace. On Easter night, Jesus breathed on His Apostles the gift of the Holy Spirit (Jn 20:20). This is sometimes called the "Johannine Pentecost." It anticipates the full public gift of the Holy Spirit that is described in St. Luke's account of Pentecost (Acts 2). Christians should be souls on fire. We will be warm as long as we stay near the Spirit of divine fire.

ACT OF CONSECRATION TO THE HOLY GHOST

On my knees | before the great multitude of heavenly witnesses | I offer myself, soul and body | to You, Eternal Spirit of God. | I adore the brightness of Your purity | the unerring keenness of Your justice | and the might of Your love. | You are the Strength | and Light of my soul. | In You I live and move and am. | I desire never to grieve You | by unfaithfulness to grace | and I pray with all my heart | to be kept from the smallest sin against You. | Mercifully guard my every thought | and grant that I may always watch for Your light | and listen to Your voice | and follow Your gracious inspirations. | I cling to You | and give myself to You | and ask You | by Your compassion | to watch over me in my weakness. | Holding the pierced Feet of Jesus | and looking at His Five Wounds | and trusting in His Precious Blood | and adoring His opened Side and stricken Heart | I implore You | Adorable Spirit | Helper of my infirmity, | so to keep me in Your grace | that I may never sin against You. | Give me grace | O Holy Ghost, | Spirit of the Father and the Son | to say to You always and everywhere | "Speak Lord | for Your servant heareth." Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE SEVEN GIFTS OF THE HOLY GHOST

O Lord Jesus Christ | Who, before ascending into heaven | did promise to send the Holy Ghost | to finish Your work | in the souls of Your Apostles and Disciples | deign to grant the same Holy Spirit to me | that He may perfect in my soul | the work of Your grace and Your love. | Grant me the Spirit of Wisdom | that I may despise the perishable things of this world | and aspire only after the things | that are eternal | the Spirit of Understanding | to enlighten my mind | with the light of Your divine truth | the Spirit of Counsel | that I may ever choose | the surest way of pleasing God | and gaining heaven | the Spirit of Fortitude | that I may bear my cross with You | and that I may overcome with courage | all the obstacles that oppose my salvation | the Spirit of Knowledge | that I may know God and know myself | and grow perfect in the science of the Saints | the Spirit of Piety | that I may find the service of God sweet and amiable | the Spirit of Fear | that I may be filled with a loving reverence towards God and may dread in any way to displease Him. | Mark me, dear Lord | with the sign of Your true disciples | and animate me in all things with Your Spirit. | Amen.
