ST. THERESE OF LISIEUX

CATHOLIC CHURCH

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“But the tax collector stood off at a distance...and prayed, ‘O God, be merciful to me a sinner.’ I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” - Lk 18:13a, 13c-14

OUR PARISH MISSION

We are a welcoming Christian family committed to Catholic values, responding to the call of Christ revealed in the diversity of human need. We practice a conscious, living, active faith in a community whose source of strength is the Eucharist.

Miraculous Prayer to the Little Flower

*O Little flower of Jesus, ever consoling troubled souls with heavenly graces, in our unfailing intercessions I place my confident trust. From the heart of our Divine Savior, petition the blessings of which I stand in greatest need.....Shower upon me your promised roses of virtue and grace, Dear St. Therese, so that swiftly advancing in sanctity and perfect love of neighbor, I may someday receive the crown of life eternal.
Amen*

It's murder': Quebec physicians group slammed for proposing to euthanize
'severely ill' babies

Alex Schadenburg, Euthanasia Prevention Coalition (LifesiteNews, Oct. 12, 2022) – The National Post published a thorough article by journalist Catherine Lévesque on October 11. Lévesque explains: “Dr. Louis Roy, from the Quebec College of Physicians, told the Commons’ Special Joint Committee of Medical Assistance in Dying (MAID) on Friday that his organization believes MAID can be appropriate for infants up to age one who are born with ‘severe malformations’ and ‘grave and severe syndromes’ for which their ‘prospective of survival is null, so to speak.’”

Lévesque first quoted from Krista Carr with “Inclusion Canada”: “Most families of children born with disabilities are told from the start that their child will, in one way or another, not have a good quality of life... Canada cannot begin killing babies when doctors predict there is no hope for them. Predictions are far too often based on discriminatory assumptions about life with a disability”. Carr then said: “An infant cannot consent to their own death. This isn’t MAID, it’s murder. And providing MAID to a person who cannot consent is a standard that is wildly dangerous for all persons with intellectual disabilities in Canada.”

To further clarify the position of the Québec College of Physicians, Lévesque quoted from a Dec. 2021 press release which said that MAID could be an avenue for infants who are subject to “extreme suffering that cannot be soothed, coupled with very dark prognostics,” while adding that this treatment would have to be regulated by a “strict protocol.” The College mentioned the Netherlands’ Groningen Protocol – a detailed process that includes unbearable suffering confirmed by at least one doctor and informed consent from both parents – as an avenue to explore in Canada for euthanasia for severely ill newborns. It also recommended making MAID accessible to minors from 14 to 17 years old, with the authorization of parents or of a tutor.

Lévesque quoted comments made by National Post columnist Ben Woodfinden, who originally reported about Roy’s testimony: “Assisted death or suicide isn’t even the right word for what’s being described here. A baby cannot consent, a baby cannot decide they want to end their own life, it’s not about any kind of ‘choice’ or ‘autonomy.’ It’s straight up infanticide”.

American disability activist and film maker Dominic Evans told Lévesque: “I have many friends who were told this in infancy who have lived into adulthood and have thriving lives.” I told Lévesque that infant euthanasia is not about “autonomy” or “choice” and it opens the door to further expansions. Now, it’s not about my autonomy, my choice. If I can do that to a newborn, why can’t I do that to someone who never asked for it, who never showed any interest in it but now has Alzheimer’s?

Once the door to killing without consent is completely opened, the swath of people who become eligible for being killed expands exponentially.

Biden Pledges Democratic Party Support for Abortion: Reuters news service reported on Tuesday morning, Oct 18: "President Joe Biden, under renewed pressure over high inflation with mid-term elections approaching, will say on Tuesday he plans to send a bill to Congress to guarantee abortion rights if Democrats control the legislature next year. . . . He is trying to rally the party and its supporters around abortion rights, which were sharply curtailed by the Supreme Court's decision nearly four months ago to overturn the landmark Roe v Wade ruling. 'He will say that if the American people elect more Democratic Senators in November and keep the House Democratic, the first bill he will send to the next Congress will be to codify Roe -- and he will sign it around the 50th anniversary of the Roe decision,' a Democratic official said."

The Most Important Elections Ever for the Pro-Life Cause
Importance of Electing Pro-Life Lawmakers in the Upcoming November 8 Election

by Fr. Frank Pavone, National Director, Priests for Life
President Biden has said that abortion is on the ballot this November, and indeed it is. Since the courts will no longer so easily block pro-life laws, the time is more urgent than ever to elect pro-life lawmakers. This is the moment we as a pro-life movement have been waiting for. In the post-Roe world, we are learning it isn't just pro-life legislatures, pro-life governors and a pro-life Congress that matters (and we have to fight in all those arenas against pro-abortion laws), but also pro-life city council members, pro-life mayors, pro-life judges, and pro-life school and library boards.

All Saints Day Party
