OUR PARISH MISSION

We are a welcoming Christian family committed to Catholic values, responding to the call of Christ revealed in the diversity of human need. We practice a conscious, living, active faith in a community whose source of strength is the Eucharist.

Miraculous Prayer to the Little Flower

*O Little flower of Jesus, ever consoling troubled souls with heavenly graces, in our unflinching intercessions I place my confident trust. From the heart of our Divine Savior, petition the blessings of which I stand in greatest need.....Shower upon me your promised roses of virtue and grace, Dear St. Therese, so that swiftly advancing in sanctity and perfect love of neighbor, I may someday receive the crown of life eternal.
Amen*

To the Heart of Jesus through the Heart of Mary

By Ronald Rodrigues MI National President
militiaoftheimmaculata.com

This past Friday, June 16 the Church celebrated the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, a Heart that represents Christ's burning love for us, His human, yet divine Heart which is filled with compassion and suffering for us. It is a Heart full of love but also a Heart of sorrow, a Heart we tried to kill and a love we tried to extinguish. It is a Heart encircled with thorns, pierced by our sins, and filled with the indifference of humanity towards Him. Jesus' Heart is on fire with his love for us. He points to His Heart to show us His eternal love for each one of us. Jesus Christ took on our weak and fragile human body to give us eternal salvation and reveal His infinite love for us.

This past Saturday the Church celebrated the Feast of Immaculate Heart of Mary. Devotion to her Immaculate Heart focuses on her burning love for God, her maternal love for her Son, Jesus, and her great desire to bring all of us to her Son. Hers is a heart hurt by the indifference and offenses of mankind committed against her Son and her love for us. Roses surround Mary's Heart showing her purity and sinlessness. Mary's redemptive suffering and her spiritual crucifixion is shown with a sword piercing her heart. Simeon told Mary "a sword would pierce through your soul" (Lk 2:35). The sword represents the sorrows Mary would experience.

On Friday we worshipped the Heart of the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who gave Himself to us out of love and allowed His Heart to be pierced by our sins (CCC 2669). St. John Paul II said, "The Sacred Heart has given us everything: redemption, salvation, and sanctification." The very next day we honored the Heart of Mary, our Mother, who loves us and leads us to her Son, Jesus. She brought Jesus into this world, so He could save us from ourselves and give us the path to eternal life.

The Hearts of Mary and Jesus are united as one. Jesus received His humanity from the flesh and blood of His Blessed Mother. At Calvary, the Hearts of Jesus and Mary were united for the salvation of mankind. In the Gospel of St. Luke, we hear that Mary pondered all things in her heart. In Luke 12:34, Jesus said, "For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." Mary's treasure was Jesus and there her heart was also. "The heart that resembles that of Christ more than any other is without a doubt the Heart of Mary, His Immaculate Mother, and for this reason the liturgy holds them together for our veneration" (Pope Benedict XVI)." Sister Lucia dos Santos, one of the children of Fatima, said: "While Jesus was in Mary's womb, the Heart of Jesus was beating in unison with the Heart of Mary."

Their Hearts cannot be separated. For nine months the blood of Christ was the blood of Mary, taken from her Immaculate Heart, beating in unison. Jesus told Sister Lucia that He wanted us to have a devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary along with the devotion to His Sacred Heart. . . . When we praise, love and honor Mary or give her our worries and requests, she then gives God praise, honor and love and presents our requests to Him. We go to the Father through the Heart of Jesus and to Jesus through the Heart of Mary.

The Heart of Mary is intimately united with the Heart of Jesus, such that they cannot be separated. If we desire to come closer to the love of God, then we should go first to Mary, and she will lead us along the shortest path to the Heart of Jesus. St. Maximilian Kolbe says: "Never be afraid of loving the Blessed Virgin too much. You can never love her more than Jesus did." When we honor the Immaculate Heart of Mary, we truly give honor to Jesus. She is our Mother (Jn 19:25-27; cf. Rev 12:17). "If you put the love of all the mothers into one heart, it still would not equal the love of the Heart of Mary for her children" (St. Louis de Montfort). St. John Eudes emphasized: "So closely are Jesus and Mary bound up with each other that whoever loves Jesus, loves Mary; whoever has devotion to Jesus, has devotion to Mary."

Mary's Heart is a heart filled with love for Jesus, for God. She shows us the way we should love God. We honor Mary as the woman chosen to be the Mother of God and we imitate the love she has for Jesus.... The important goal of our devotion is to unite mankind to God through Mary's Heart.... Our consecration to Mary's Immaculate Heart is linked to the consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Our consecration is ultimately to God through the Heart of Mary. (See the Act of Consecration to the Immaculata on p. 2 of this week's bulletin.)

Act of Total Consecration to the Immaculata

(Prayer composed by St. Maximilian Kolbe):

O Immaculata, Queen of Heaven and earth, refuge of sinners and our most loving Mother, God has willed to entrust the entire order of mercy to you. I, (name), a repentant sinner, cast myself at your feet humbly imploring you to take me with all that I am and have, wholly to yourself as your possession and property. Please make of me, of all my powers of soul and body, of my whole life, death and eternity, whatever most pleases you. If it pleases you, use all that I am and have without reserve, wholly to accomplish what was said of you: "She will crush your head," and, "You alone have destroyed all heresies in the world." Let me be a fit instrument in your immaculate and merciful hands for introducing and increasing your glory to the maximum in all the many strayed and indifferent souls, and thus help extend as far as possible the blessed Kingdom of the most Sacred Heart of Jesus. For wherever you enter, you obtain the grace of conversion and growth in holiness, since it is through your hands that all graces come to us from the most Sacred Heart of Jesus. V. Allow me to praise you, O sacred Virgin. R. Give me strength against your enemies.
